

Come & Sing Evensong in Surbiton

Saturday 9th June, 3.00–7.00pm

St Andrew's Church, Maple Road, Surbiton KT6 4DS

A chance to sing Evensong in the lovely acoustic of St Andrew's Surbiton, with the fine 3-manual organ played by Director of Music Simon Harvey, and conducted by Simon Hancock, Music Director of neighbouring St Matthew's Church. Please email Simon Hancock (simonhancock29@gmail.com) to register. Under 18s must be supervised.

Come & Sing Messiah in Southwark Cathedral

Saturday 7th July 2.00pm – Southwark Cathedral

Come and join the Friends of Southwark Cathedral together with the Royal School of Church Music to join sing the choruses of Handel's masterpiece Messiah Parts One and Two.

Conducted by Peter Wright, Director of Music at Southwark Cathedral, the day starts at 2:00pm with a performance at 4:45-5:45pm.

Tickets to take part cost £10.00 and you can book tickets online. Further details at:

<https://cathedral.southwark.anglican.org/whats-on/come-and-sing-handel-s-messiah-parts-one-and-two-choruses/>

Awards Events

Summer examining session

Saturday 9th June
Southwark Cathedral

Awards Presentation and Choral Evensong

Sunday 30th September 3:00pm
Southwark Cathedral

Awards Training Day

Saturday 6th October
Southwark Cathedral

Joint Area Festival Remembrance and Peace – Marking the Centenary of the Armistice

Saturday 10th November 1:00–5:00pm

St George's RC Cathedral Southwark

Southwark, London and Essex/East
London RSCM Areas
host a joint Choirs
Festival, a singing day to mark the Centenary of the Armistice which ended WW1, which will conclude with a performance of Remembrance and Peace – Marking the Centenary of the Armistice.

Directed by Norman Harper, Director of Music,
St George's Cathedral

Full details and booking:

www.rscmlondon.org.uk/remembrance-and-peace.php

GDPR

For our privacy policy see the RSCM website at

<https://www.rscm.com/privacy-policy/>

This sheet is not necessarily exhaustive and we will send more information during the summer.

Enquiries welcome at newsletter@rscmsouthwark.org.uk or visit our website at www.rscmsouthwark.org.uk